Upcoming Events

The school's choir will be hosting a mini-musical. It will be open to families on March 4th and 5th. Our class along with the rest of the school body will get to see it on March 7th. A letter will be coming home with more information about it. On March 27th our class will be walking to McDonald's (on King George Rd) to have lunch. A letter and permission form will be sent home detailing more information.

In Class!

This month we will be focusing on Co-operation for Character Attributes. A focus in math will be making connections. In language we will be working on making proper sentences.
