Anti-Bullying Initiative

On Tuesday, February 21, the Grand Eric Safe Schools Team presented at the school assembly. They addressed various forms of bullying and encouraged acts of kindness. The students participated in rich and meaning discussions about personal power, responsibilities of by-standers and the impact of kindness.

On Wednesday, February 22, Glen Morris students and staff participated in Pink Shirt Day; an event that originated in Nova Scotia in 2007 when a student was bullied for wearing a pink shirt.

Student Council asked that everyone show their support of this event by wearing pink and by filling out a message of kindness to add to the school banner. An assembly was held in the gym with a read-aloud story and questions, a Grade 8 poem about acceptance and celebrating differences and a video of twenty kind things to say to people. At the end of the assembly everyone gathered for a school-wide picture and showed their support for standing up to bullies.

To Keep You In The Loop...

A few weeks ago, we had an unexpected problem with our septic system and our board facilities department promptly fixed it in a couple hours. During this time, we had fewer washrooms available. When there are similar, unexpected issues such as these in the future, we will place an automated phone call from the school to keep you in the loop.
