Principal's Message:

October has been a busy month with a variety of class trips, picture day, assemblies and special events such as our primary craft day and Halloween Celebrations.

Our classroom teachers are assessing and addressing curriculum expectations. We are encouraging our students to reach their learning goals. The staff of Glen Morris will focus closely on improving student ability to answer multi-step mathematical problems. Our teacher instruction and next steps for students will be based on ongoing student assessments. These practices will continue throughout the year. If you have any questions about this please ask any teaching staff. You can also find our School Improvement plan on our school website.

Kind Regards, Latha Reuben

Elementary Progress Report Card

The Elementary Progress Report Card is first in the series of reporting student achievement to parents. It is designed to show a student's development of the learning skills and work habits during the fall of the school year. The progress report card outlines a student's general progress in working towards the achievement of the curriculum expectations. Teachers use the progress report to inform parents if their child is progressing very well, well, or with difficulty. Glen Morris Central will send the Elementary Progress Report Cards home on November 16th.

Parent-Teacher Interview

Information provided in the progress report often needs more explanation. That's why the Parent-Teacher Interviews are important and timed with the release of the Elementary Progress Report Card. The interview is also an opportunity to talk about the progress of your child's social development in addition to the information provided in the progress report. Glen Morris Central will hold our Parent-Teacher Interviews on the evening of November 17th and the morning of November 18th. Parents/guardians are encouraged to make appointments with their child's classroom teacher and come prepared with questions and concerns. The interview request form was sent home last week. A confirmation will be sent home in the report card envelope.

Parent Council Meeting

Hello Parents/Guardians,

We are in full swing and planning some awesome fundraisers this year. This will help fill some needs in our children's school. We are also in full planning mode for the 2016 Holiday Snow Globe Workshop. Keep an eye out as we will be sending home information very soon. We are also looking for your donations to help with different crafts for the Workshop. If you are able to fill any items requested, it will assist the parents in creating wonderful crafts for the kids to make. Wondering where you can help? We have lots of areas that need your helping hands. Please let us know.

Come on out on November 8th to the next Parent Council meeting!

Thank you, Lisamaree Cormier

Family Reading Fundraiser

(Renew Your Subscriptions or purchase new magazines)

Once again we will be offering the QSP Family Reading Program. Our kick-off assembly is scheduled for Friday, November 4th at 2:30 p.m. Catalogues and order information will be sent home after the assembly. Orders can be placed on-line or by filling out the order form. All paper orders are due back no later than Monday November 21st. Cheques should be made payable to Glen Morris School. Profits from this year's fundraiser will support Technology.

The BOOK FAIR is coming!

The Scholastic Book Fair will be at Glen Morris P.S in November during Parent-Teacher Interviews. This is a great way to add books to your home library, buy books for your child's classroom or get some holiday shopping done. There will be draws, prizes and competitive prices. Please help support Glen Morris school by purchasing some books at our fair. We hope to see you there! Cheques should be made payable to Glen Morris School.

Book Fair Schedule:

Wednesday November 16th-

Preview Day for all classes

Thursday November 17th-Sales all day and evening (during interviews)

Friday November 18th-LAST DAY-Sales all morning (during interviews)
