

DEAR EVAN HANSEN

Book by Steven Levenson
Music & Lyrics by Benj Pasek & Justin Paul

Calling all High School Teachers!

Greetings from your friends at Drayton Entertainment,

We hope this message finds you well as your school has embarked on a new semester of studies. I'm writing to extend a warm invitation to have your teachers bring their classes to a special student performance of the Tony Award-winning musical Dear Evan Hansen.

This contemporary and deeply resonant work speaks directly to young people about connection, identity, mental health, and the courage it takes to be seen.

Our special School Matinee performance dates are as follows:

- Wed, March 25 at 10:30 am
- Tues, March 31 at 10:30 am
- Tues, April 7 at 10:30 am
- Wed, April 8 at 10:30 am

With its modern score, emotionally honest storytelling, and highly relatable themes, Dear Evan Hansen offers rich opportunities for classroom discussion around empathy, social media, belonging, and the impact of our choices. To support school groups planning to attend this production, we've developed a comprehensive Study Guide that encourages reflection, discussion, and critical thinking around the show's themes, characters, and contemporary relevance. We have attached this guide to this email, so that educators can explore its contents before booking.

This opportunity is well-suited for Drama, Music, English, and Social Sciences classes, and can be paired with discussions about character, storytelling, and the role of theatre in reflecting lived experience.

*Recommended for secondary school students.

*Content advisories are available here.

Here is what you can expect with your Drayton Entertainment Experience:

- Great value! Student tickets for school matinees are only $23.50+HST, per ticket.
- Performances are exclusively for school groups at the convenient time of 10:30 a.m.
- Complimentary tickets for teachers/supervisors provided at a 1:10 student ratio

Please contact me for further details regarding show and to book your tickets.

See you at the theatre!
